

"I wish from my soul that the legislature of this State could see a policy of a gradual Abolition of Slavery." (letter to Lawrence Lewis, August 4, 1797)

---

George Washington was the Commander-in-Chief of the Continental Army and the first President of the United States of America.